

HHL Admission Test Day

After you submitted your application for the full-time Master of Science in Management program at HHL, and given that your application meets the requirements, you will be invited to the Admission Test Day at HHL.

The Admission Test Day consists of three parts:

1. Interview with an HHL-Professor (approx.20 min.)
2. Interview with a business representative (approx. 20 min.)
3. Short presentation and discussion (5-7 min + 5-7 min. for discussion)

The criteria focused on during the interviews are:

1. Problem solving abilities (analytical abilities, structuring, flexibility, creativity, business understanding)
2. Personality (ability to work in a team, maturity, self-confidence, communication skills)
3. Leadership potential (leadership ability, motivation and energy, profit orientation)

Regarding the short presentation, the candidate receives two different topics (one business topic and one topic out of the field of ethics/economics) of which one has to be chosen.

One hour of preparation time is given. The library as well as the computer labs (with internet access) can be used for preparation. Time for the presentation is 5-7 minutes followed by a discussion (another 5-7 minutes).

The following criteria are evaluated:

1. Presentation (problem identification, outline and structure, synthesis ability, creativity and originality)
2. Discussion (assessment ability, argumentation, critical faculty)
3. Personality (appearance, theoretical ability, self-confidence)

HHL's Admissions Committee will normally determine admission on the same day the Admission Test takes place at HHL. The Admissions Committee consist of elected members (two professors, one academic assistant, one administrative staff member, one student) and the examiners of the test day.

Admission Test Days for the start of your studies in Fall 2011 are scheduled for:
