

HHL German language classes for MBA students

1. Beginner

Pre-requisites	None
Duration	2 terms (September-February)
Lessons per week	4 (1 lesson = 45 minutes) (2 sessions, 90 minutes each)
Total number of lessons	approximately 100
Number of credits
Estimated minimum time for self-study	5 hours per week
Course aim	The course will take students to the Waystage Level (Level A2) of language competence as described in the European Framework. Participants should be aware that the level of language command achieved in this course will generally not suffice to meet the average German company's requirements for internship candidates.
Course profile	The course provides an introduction to the basic structures of German grammar along with the vocabulary needed to cope with simple situations in both everyday and business contexts.
Syllabus and literature	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tangram 1A (Hueber)• Tangram 1B (Hueber)• Unternehmen Deutsch (Klett)• Wirtschaftsdeutsch für Anfänger (Klett)•
Follow-up	Students who have successfully completed the course may take the exchange students' Intermediate course beginning in March.

Please note:

The information given as to the course aims and profiles may vary according to the participants previous knowledge, attendance records and commitment to the courses.