

Center for Corporate Transactions and Private Equity

In recent years, the importance of private equity (PE) as an asset class has rapidly increased and deal activity has surged to record levels. Still it is understudied academically and success factors of PE investments are not yet fully understood. The Center for Corporate Transactions and Private Equity (CCTPE) is a think tank for private equity buyouts that aims at closing this gap. The purpose of the Center is to foster high quality research output, and provide a platform for renowned scholars and industry professionals at HHL Leipzig Graduate School of Management – one of the leading business schools in Europe. Over the past years, a team of renowned and experienced scholars has created a competitive database on PE buyouts and received considerable media attention as well as several scientific awards for its research.

Several high-profile companies support us already:

Our private equity database at a glance:

Deal information on > 34,000 individual private equity buyouts across > 140 countries since 1997

Additional key information (e.g., sales, EBITDA, industry) about involved target companies

Additional key information about involved PE funds (e.g., M&A experience, lead partners)

Fully integrated & reviewed data based on multiple data sets from industry leading PE & Finance data providers
