

Employment Report 2020: Part-time Master in Management (M.Sc.)

Graduates of the part-time Master Program in Management (M.Sc.) at HHL generate a salary increase averaging 54 percent after completing their studies.

HHL's part-time program gave me the chance of building my career in my full-time job and at the same time extending my knowledge at a renowned university. It is a distinctive combination, which has substantiated my personal and professional development. Receiving access to HHL's unique alumni network and career service enabled me to fully take advantage of the program.

Studying at HHL enabled me to look way beyond my previous work experiences. HHL's part-time M.Sc. program was the perfect way to connect with fellow motivated young professionals, alumni and the career service team. Various meetings with HHL's career service and calls with alumni optimally prepared me for my applications and interviews at management consulting firms.
