AméricaEconomía* places MBA program in 36th position globally

HHL offers one of the best MBA programs in the world. This was confirmed once again by the 2021 ranking recently published by the AméricaEconomía business journal, which examines international Master of Business Administration (MBA) programs. Ranked at 36th worldwide, HHL has moved up 17 places.

- 36th place globally
- highest proportion of female students worldwide
- outstanding in the Innovation category — almost on par with Stanford and Yale

HHL scored "outstanding" in the Innovation category, with 97.7 out of 100 points. This puts the university-level business school in 6th place worldwide for this category, closely behind world-leading institutions such as Stanford Graduate School of Business, Haas School of Business and Yale School of Management. HHL also stands out in terms of diversity, having the highest percentage of female MBA students in the world, with 65 percent.

"We are very pleased that the result of the ranking reflects our ongoing efforts to understand what our students currently need and thus make the program as attractive as possible."

HHL Prof. Dr. Vivek Velamuri, Academic Director of MBA Program
