HHL Middle East Scholarship (full-time MBA)

Scholarship Introduction – International Competences & Diversity

International competence is essential for success as a business leader. Each MBA class is made up of students from about 20 countries, with backgrounds ranging from engineering and medicine to music. They bring with them experiences from a diversity of cultures, languages, sectors and companies. This international and diverse setting perfectly prepares our students for their careers in international and intercultural teams and companies. Small classes and interactive group projects strengthen your intercultural competencies and reinforce the team spirit. Our students therefore establish a strong network of friendships and valuable global contacts, which unlocks many a door in their management careers. Current MBA students come from across the world:

At HHL we believe that diversity in the classroom will enrich everyone's learning experience, open you up to new perspectives and broaden your mind. We want to find out about your experiences and your culture, and discover how these will strengthen the open-minded and international HHL spirit.
