I applied to E.ON Inhouse Consulting GmbH for their HHL campus interviews. After three rounds of interviews, supported by the HHL Careers team, I got an offer to join as a Visiting Consultant and the rest as they say is history! I am now a Senior Consultant at E.ON, working on interesting topics with an international, inspirational bunch of colleagues.

One of the reasons I chose HHL was their diverse offer of networking events and company visits. You never know what a company event might lead to! We visited my current company during my MBA, where I got to know colleagues and the CEO. This was a door-opener for me, which led to an internship, and in turn a job.

HHL may be small, but we have one of the strongest networks. When I started applying, Kati gave me a number of alumni contacts at companies I was interested in. Every single one of them got back to me and was open to getting to know me!
