e-fellows Masters Scholarship

Educating effective, responsible and entrepreneurial business leaders through excellence in teaching, research and practice.

The Master Programs at HHL are an important step for your future career and personal development. To support new talents in management, we are happy to announce our e-fellows Masters Scholarship in cooperation with e-fellows.net. The scholarship is open to everyone who participated in an e-fellows Master Day as well as to all students and alumni of e-fellows.net.

HHL will award 4 e-fellows Masters Scholarships in the amount of 5.000€ each per year.

The application deadline is April 30. Please submit your application directly with your program application or send it to Dorothee Ruske (d.ruske@hhl.de).

In order to be eligible for this scholarship, the following requirements need to be fulfilled:

- Outstanding academic performance in your Bachelor's degree
- A GMAT Focus Score of 595 or an HHL Entry Test Score of 14.00 points
- Excellent application interview with a professor of HHL
- A current or former membership with the e-fellows.net network
- One-page essay answering one of the two provided essay questions (see below)

Essay Question #1:

How do you see yourself supporting the HHL community and keeping up our unique HHL spirit during your studies?

Essay Question #2:

What is your most prominent achievement and how does it relate to your upcoming Master studies?

We look forward to receiving your e-fellows Masters Scholarship application!
